

Memoir Writing Course

Yes, I would like to participate in Cheverly Village's course on memoir writing taught by Cathy Smith!

The eight-class course is offered online (via Zoom) from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on Mondays, beginning September 14 and ending November 2, 2020. If sufficient participants desire, additional eight-week sessions will be made available. The course is open to all, although priority will be given to Cheverly Village members and volunteers.

The course is for writers at all levels. Participants will learn techniques for writing about themselves in ways that are compelling and enriching.

Cathy—240-460-0263—will be happy to answer questions about the course.

I understand that the cost to me is:

_____ $80. I am not a Cheverly Village member, volunteer, or donor.

_____ $72.* I am a Cheverly Village volunteer, spouse of a volunteer, or donor.

_____ $60.* I am a Cheverly Village member.

(*Please contact the Executive Director if you need to request a further discount: DianeLaVoy@CheverlyVillage.org.)

_____ $80. I am a member or volunteer, but I would be happy to pay the full amount to help the Village assist other participants.

I am sending this signed form, along with a check made out to Cheverly Village for the amount I've marked, to Cheverly Village, 3416 Belleview Avenue, Cheverly, MD 20785.
