

CHEVERLY VILLAGE SPECIAL EVENT

Avoiding Phone and Online Scams: Thursday, February 18, 5:00-7:00 pm. Cheverly Village welcomes Bridget Small from the Federal Trade Commission, who will offer tips on how to respond to phone and online scammers who want to steal your sensitive information. You will also learn how to block unwanted calls on cell phones and landlines, dodge new scams related to stimulus payments and vaccine enrollment, and report problems to the FTC to help investigations. Click for registration/info

UPDATE ON COVID-19 VACCINATIONS

From Cheverly Mayor Laila Riazi:

Residents who need help registering for the vaccine can now access a new vaccine registration hotline by calling 311 and pressing #. This line is meant specifically for those who have trouble accessing the Internet and utilizing technology, and need assistance with the vaccine pre-registration process.

- EVERYONE ELSE should pre-register at <https://bit.ly/PGCVaccineForm>
- Vaccines will only be available for residents or for people who work in Prince George's County!
- You will be contacted by phone or email.
- Private links will be sent to individuals when vaccine is available.
- Private links will be sent for individual second doses* for the advised date.
- Bring proof of residency/employment to your appointment.

*Vaccine is being reserved for second dosage.

Angela Alsobrooks' Press Conference (January 25, 2021) on the Covid-19 Vaccine is available on YouTube or Facebook.

REGULAR EVENTS SPONSORED BY CHEVERLY VILLAGE

Tea and Tech: Tuesday, February 9, 2:00-3:00 pm. Bring your perplexing tech issues for resolution with help from tech-savvy Village volunteers. See the Events List at www.cheverlyvillage.org

Cheverly Village Book Club: Wednesday, February 10, 2:00-4:00 pm. We will discuss Educated by Tara Westover, an award-winning memoir about a young woman who leaves her survivalist family and goes on to earn a PhD from Cambridge University. New members are welcome. See the Events List at www.cheverlyvillage.org

BINGO Online: Tuesday, February 16, 2:00-4:00 pm. Join the fun on your computer or on your phone! Please request cards if you are new to the game. See the Events List at www.cheverlyvillage.org

Afternoon Coffee Chat: Tuesday, February 23, 2:00-3:00 pm. Join in a visit with fellow Village members and share your thoughts about what activities you want to enjoy once we have a bit more freedom from Covid-19 restrictions. What are you missing most? See the Events List at www.cheverlyvillage.org

Virtual Social Hour: Every Friday at 5:00 pm. See the Events List at www.cheverlyvillage.org

COMMUNITY AND OTHER VILLAGES' EVENTS

Note that most events sponsored by other organizations have a two-step registration process. Cheverly Village Members may contact the Coordinator at 240-770-1033 for help with registrations. To browse all events, go to the the Events List at www.cheverlyvillage.org

Movies@Hope presents the 1980 Oscar-winning comedy Being There, Friday, February 5, at 7:30 pm. starring the great Peter Sellers. Associate Professor Mary Dutterer of Prince George's and Howard County Community Colleges will introduce this classic and lead the discussion afterwards. No registration is required—join the event at <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86455123132>.

Combatting Domestic Terrorism and Armed Paramilitaries: Thursday, February 11, at 1:00–2:30 pm. Mary McCord will discuss how unlawful armed para-military organizations are continuing to threaten constitutional rights and what can be done about them.

The Art of Doodling (ongoing series) Tuesday, February 18, 5:30-7:00 pm. with Cheverly Artist and Sculptor Liz Lescault. Optional donation requested.

A Lab of One's Own: Wednesday, February 24, 1:00–2:30 pm. Groundbreaking microbiologist Rita Colwell discusses her memoir-manifest of six decades in science.

Explore ongoing events in our community anytime at Events on Demand under the Events tab.

www.cheverlyvillage.org

Contact us: village@cheverlyvillage.org or 240-770-1033